STUDENT NATIONAL

SEMIFINAL EXAMS

Jack Cross, senior of St. Stanislaus, will compete with some 1,800 students in a nationwide semifinal examination scheduled for January 14, 1944.

He successfully completed an examination for merit scholarship given this past October to about 80,000 students on a nationwide examination, making them eligible for the semifinal tests.

After the January test 350 scholarships will be awarded among the remaining 2000 Seniors. Top scorers in this test and on subsequent screening will be notified before next May 1.

The nationwide program is designed to put the country's brightest college prospects into universities and colleges regardless of their financial status, when it was discovered that half of the most able high school graduates could not afford to go to college.

The largest non-governmental scholarship program in the history of American education, the competition is being conducted by the National Merit Scholarship Corp. of Evanston, Ill.

The program was financed initially through grants of twenty millions from the Ford Foundation and a half million from the Carnegie Corporation, and business and industry have been invited to join in the project. So far, Sears Roebuck Foundation has added $800,000 and Time Inc. $30,000.

Scholarships will be awarded solely on merit and without reference to financial status. However, the amount awarded to the student will be graduated according to the needs of the student, local principals in 10,000 high schools as the most prominent five per cent of each senior class. Competing students are those who have been picked by their creditor colleges or universities in the United States. The following Seniors also took the October examinations: James Grace, William Bowman and Jack Johnson.

May the spirit of Christmas... the spirit of Charity and Good Faith... the spirit of Humility and Good Will Towards All. And let us pray that from this day forth, the Christmas Spirit will abide with us through all our lives, that we may be the better for it. May we take this opportunity to wish all our friends the very best on Christmas and for all of the days to come.

A CHRISTMAS DREAM

Rose ran to the door as the bell rang loudly. Where Steve in his winter tux stood proudly. He had come to take her to the Christmas Dance. And when she saw him she stared in a trance. He blushed from his blond crew cut to his toes. As he handed her a beautiful red rose.

They walked from the brisk air into the hall, where they were greeted by friends and all. Dancing to the music of the Rocksters was fine. But whirling in HIS arms was SO divine. As the hours grew late, Rose too soon found. She was dancing the last dance, round and round.

Holding hands shyly they sat on her swing. She secretly sighed, "Please, Steve, your ring." He must have sensed her innermost thought. For gently, her fourth finger he sought. Oh! Happiness was hers! She could ask no more! But— Suddenly she awoke as she hit the floor.

THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS

Let us stop, this day, to reflect on the true spirit of Christmas...the spirit of Charity and Good Faith...the spirit of Humility and Good Will Towards All. And let us pray that from this day forth, the Christmas Spirit will abide with us through all our lives, that we may be the better for it. May we take this opportunity to wish all our friends the very best on Christmas and for all of the days to come.

WHAT EVE TO SHOW FOR OLDSMOBILE

The musical and mechanical "Babe in Toyland" will be the Christmas Eve holiday highlight when the Oldsmobile Dealers of America presents this colorful spectacular from 6 to 9:30 p.m. over the NBC-TV network.

Such popular stars as Dennis Day, Dave Garroway, Wally Cox, Jack E. Leonard, Bambi Lynn and Rod Alexander and the Bill and Cora Baird marionettes will be gracing the video screens as they did last Christmas when Max Liebman first presented the holiday hit. A newcomer to the cast this year will be the delightful young Barbara Cook, the singing lead of the Broadway musical hit, "Plain and Fancy."

This 18th Oldsmobile color spectacular has been an all-time American favorite for over 50 years and features such popular melodies as "March of the Toys," "Toyland," "I Can't Do That Sum" and "Don't Cry, No Peep."

The story is set in the magical and mythical kingdom of Toyland. Dennis Day, whose tenor fame rose on the Jack Benny shows, is matched with Barbara Cook as the couple whose romance is thwarted by the wily and garulous Jack E. Leonard.

To their rescue comes Wally Cox as the open-hearted Toyman whose toy soldiers drive the villain out of Toyland forever.

The Yuletide treat is interspersed with songs, dances and circus clown antics by characters from the fairytale world.

Dave Garroway, television's most intrepid and seen video adventurer, will again take the role of the department store Santa Claus who tells the Toyland story to a lost waif, played by Elaine Barrie, until her mother recovers her.

Now, people are not about for thinking to help our civilization to progress and development from its present conditions. No one seems to want the next step should be, people and themselves what is the right thing to do.

But perhaps we already know what is the right thing to do, and have just forgotten where to look for the answer. It might be wise for us to stop our searching and despairing and reexamine the simple but profound truths the Mark of Galilee preached to us two thousand years ago. Not even the ghastly flash of atom bombs can hide the glow which surrounded His manger at Bethlehem and followed Him from the tomb of the Resurrection.

CHRISTIANS BELIEVE in the individual dignity of man. We believe that God created man in His own image and gave him a conscience to distinguish right and wrong. We believe that He provided man with unchangeable rules to govern his conduct and that in Christ He gave man a Divine Model after Whose life he might attempt to mould his own. Our country was founded on these basic beliefs and we can save it by returning to belief in them and following them with all our strength.

What victory has Jesus to boast in the conquest of a generation of men as it is, unconverted and unrepentant.
Our society would stamp out Christ from people's lives. They would make only an animal who feels and hates but does not pray and believe. Our enemy is a diabolical enemy who can't be defeated simply by guns and power. Only a strong and vigorous Christianity can defeat him; the kind of Christianity that waits for our rediscovery.

PROMISES OF DOOM tell us there is no way out of evil unless we do it. But this is a glorious call of faith. Who can stir his soul to make Christianity mean? God make it strong enough to win our evil? No, the danger is not that Christianity is weak but that we may be weak Christians.

It isn't sufficient simply to profess Christianity, for it is not a passive religion. It is the creed of men of action, who have the determination to resist evil. Reflecting on the truths of Christianity is not enough, understanding the evils which torment our world is not enough. We must rekindle our desire to act.

OUR PERSONAL SALVATION. The salvation of our country, and of our civilized world lies in the covering evil and seeking to eliminate it. A true Christian never looks his back; nor does he stop by ignoring evil that it will soon pass. He stands up to it and fights it. In this way he is American and Christian to the core.

December 2 brought more excitement to A.A. for it was the Holy Jax' first basketball game. After much anticipation the Jaxx went wholeheartedly into their game with Waveland. Although the scoreboard read 63 at the end of the first quarter, it did not weaken their spirits.

and head quarter. A few minutes the gym grew quiet, everyone was tense; Warland was leading by two points, then Elizabeth made two points. Warland retaliated with more baskets winning the game, 21-15.

Outstanding players for the day were Elizabeth Kieleg, who

VOLLEY BALL IS ON SPORT AGENDA

The Phys Ed classes for S.J.A.'s High School students, under the direction of Mrs. Zimmerman, have begun for the '55-'56 term.

If you should walk into the gym one of these days when Phys Ed classes are going on, you would hear such sounds as "Hit it twice," "Up and over," or "Don't lose my serve."

The reason is self evident—volley ball! For the past weeks the Phys Ed classes have been undertaking this sport.

Each class is divided in groups under a leader. Competitive games between squads last ten minutes in order that each group may play.

Leading the different groups are seniors Rusty Breath, Carolyn Ladner, Di Blanchard and Cynthia Brown; juniors, Barbara Shippey, Julie Blanchard and Pat Horlock; sophomores Pat Kingston, Geraldine Bilbo, Katherine Pfeiffer and Peggy Kergosien; freshmen, Millie Piazza, Carolyn Curet, Gwen Heitzmann and Marie Favre.

TRAFFIC CONGESTION
 Traffic congestion has become commonplace, even on the open highway, and the accident potential has climbed accordingly. More and more multiple accidents—multiple deaths and multiple cars—are occurring, with excessive speeds increasing the severity of the crash.

Commissioner of Public Safety T. B. Birdsong points out that motorists must learn to control the speed and horsepower of the modern automobile if traffic accidents are to be prevented.

"Exercise caution. Keep that speed down and live longer," he urges.

Although the overall accident rate on state highways is up only 10.8 per cent, the accident rate on county-maintained roads has jumped almost proportionate to that of cities.

According to the Highway Patrol, many factors have contributed to the increased highway slaughter. Chief among these is a false sense of security many drivers feel when behind the wheel of a modern high-powered automobile. With the number of

For the past two years, however, there has been a marked reduction in fatal accidents. State safety leaders had hoped, and worked toward, a reduction in fatal accidents. State safety leaders had hoped, and worked toward, a reduction this year, however, with December yet to go, the appalling slaughter has already exceeded the 440 fatalities reported during 1954.

Responsibility in part for the startling jump in traffic deaths is the tremendous increase in city accidents. Urban accidents

MMA COMMENDED IN A & I RESOLUTION

High praise has been extended the Mississippi Manufacturers Association for "helping to develop Mississippi" according to an announcement today by MMA Executive Vice-President John E. Gregg.

CHRISTMAS FIRE SAFETY

Be fire conscious. December is the most fire hazardous month of the year. First, buy a tree that is not dried out, then set it up just before Christmas and take it down as soon afterwards as possible. Don't get a larger tree than is needed. Saw off trunk at an angle about one inch above original cut and keep in water the entire time the tree is indoors.

Support the tree well and don't put it near fireplaces or radiators. Don't use candles on the tree or near it. Check electric lighting sets each year for frayed wires and loose connections. Toys operated by alcohol, kerosene and gasoline are particularly dangerous.

Do not set up electric trains or spirit-fueled toys under the tree. Be careful while smoking near the tree. Know the location of the nearest fire alarm box and the telephone number of the fire department.

Registered In State Since 1952

Since Mississippi's new livestock brand law went into effect July 1, 1952, the brand division of the State Livestock Theft Bureau has received more than 4,000 brands with several hundred more registrations still pending.

Commissioner of Public Safety A. B. Birdsong points out, however, that many livestock owners are still branding animals with unauthorized brands which have not been properly recorded with the state brand office.

Mississippi law requires that no two brands of the same design may be recorded, regardless of where they are to appear on the animal. The new law further requires that all persons who use branding irons prior to July 1, 1952, re-register their brands under provisions of the new brand act, thus avoiding possible duplication. No brand or mark should be used unless properly registered.

According to Mike Nichols, director of the Mississippi Livestock Theft Bureau, many cattlemen are now using so-called template brands. Nichols explained that the purpose of the law is to prevent the use of the same brand for different purposes. Confusion of ownership must be avoided.

The Livestock Law defines a brand as any recorded identification mark applied to any position on the hide of a live animal by means of heat, acid, or chemical.

The recording of a livestock brand is simple. B. F. Rodgers, state supervisor of brands, states that to record a brand a person must first contact the Department of Public Safety to determine whether or not the desired brand is available. This can be done by sending an accurate size facsimile drawing of proposed brand, or if the owner already has an iron, a pencil tracing of the old brand.

After a satisfactory brand is selected, a completed application, a burned impression of the iron, and a fee of $2.00 is all that is required for registration. Application blanks can be obtained either from the Department of Public Safety or from any sheriff's or chancery clerk's office. The brand office will send the blotter card on which the brand facsimile must be burned.

The purpose of brand registra-

For Legislators

UNIVERSITY, Miss.—An Institute for Legislators will be held in the House Chamber of the State Capitol at Jackson Jan. 10-12, according to Dr. Charles N. Fortenberry, professor of political science at the University of Mississippi. Purpose of the institute is to orient new members of the Legislature in rules of procedure.

This is the second such institute to avoid duplication. If an owner should find that his brand has already been registered, an alternate should be selected immediately. The brand office will help select and design a suitable alternate brand for any owner.

Branding makes identification of strayed or stolen cattle easy. The moment an animal is discovered missing, a report should be filed with the Livestock Theft Bureau, Department of Public Safety, Jackson.

Bureau Director Nichols points out that the majority of the cattle stolen today do not wear a brand, an indication that branding itself deters thefts.

Dr. Fortenberry, who is the director of the University's Bureau of Public Administration, is chairman of the program committee. Others from the University assisting him are E. F. Yerley, director of University Extension; Hugh H. Clegg, assistant to the chancellor and director of development; Dr. Edward H. Hobbs, director of Public Administration research and associate professor of political science; and Dr. Joseph C. Carr, professor of accounting.

Legislators serving on the planning committee are Senators William G. Burkin Jr., of Columbus and William F. Gunn Jr., of Meridian, and Representatives Walter Sillers of Rosedale and George P. Cosar of Charleston.

Members of the University's Department of Speech and School Law are also participating in the planning and will participate in the program. Members of both houses will assist in instruction, Dr. Fortenberry said.

Since the end of World War II bond drives in 1954, Series E Savings Bond holdings of Americans have increased by more than $1/2 billion.

Cantatas, Pageants Mark Local Christmas Season

Week of pageants and cantatas presented by local schools and churches highlighted the Christmas season locally as Bay St. Louis residents got into the spirit of the reverent observance of the birthday of Jesus Christ.

Methodist Sunday School Christmas Pageant

Kindergarten, Primary and Divisions of Main Street Methodist Church Sunday School presented a Christmas pageant Monday morning in the Sanctuary of the Church.

Under the direction of Mrs. Sam H. Horton and Mrs. A. M. Ellison, 30 children depicted the story of Christ in a story called "Greet His Cradle Our Joy and King."

Little Jane Ellison portrayed the Virgin Mary, and Bob White enacted the role of Joseph; the role of the Scriptures was read by Mrs. A. E. Hotard at the reading of the pageant was read by Dorothy Estepa.

Episcopal Sunday School Nativity of Jesus

Leslie Horton portrayed the Virgin Mary Sunday evening when Sunday School children of Episcopal Church enacted the Nativity of Jesus Christ.

Other children in lead roles in the pantomime performance were: Chamberlain as Joseph, Schluter as the Angel Gabriel and Sonny Dorich, Jay Sewell and Wallace Sangree as the Wise Men.

About sixty other children took part as angels, shepherds and choir groups under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Lloyd Smith accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Imogene Allison, who sang Christmas Hymns and Carols.

The performance was given in church before the altar.

Following the church ceremony, children gathered in the parish hall to await the coming of the Christ Child. Here a tree was decorated with hundreds of lights and a welcome for the children and old Santa.

When he arrived to the singing of "Hallelujahs" by all present, gifts, candy and fruit for the children present, as well as for the teachers and superintendent of the Sunday School.

High Cantata Monday Night

Candle-lighted procession to accompany music of "Oh, Come All Ye Faithful" sung by Bay High Girls Chorus, preceded the presentation Monday evening of "Chorus in the Skies," Christmas cantata by Holton.

Among the traditional Christmas cantatas to be heard in special presentation by Holton were "Oh, Town of Bethlehem," "The Shepherds Watched Their Flocks by Night" and "As With Old Men of Old."

Soloists were Carolyn Johnson, soprano, Janice Bankston, mezzo-soprano, Thelma LaFontaine and Sylvia Tamplin, altos, and Marcel LaNasa, the director, violin.

The two children who formed the lovely tableau of the manger scene were sixth graders Jo Ann McCullough as Mary and Wade Ladner as Joseph.

"Come and Worship" is Pageant Theme

"Come and Worship" was the title of a pageant presented for Christmas by members of the student body of Christ Church Episcopal Day School.

Depicting the Nativity of Christ, about 108 students participated in the colorful spectacle which was held on Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 16 at the Bay Waveland Yacht Club.

Faculty members trained the students for the pageant. Scenery was done by Mrs. Bea Smith, art teacher of the school, and students of the art classes made the attractive programs.

Leading roles in the pageant were taken by Dottie Nell Rausch as the Virgin Mary; Marshall Wilcox, Waveland, as Joseph; Three Kings of the Orient were Ted Glusman, Norvin Penrose and Paul Larsen; Sally Porter depicted the Angel Gabriel and Choral readers were Alfred Watts, Don McCulloch, Bob Hamilton, Chuck Esau and Johnny Kramer.

Methodist Church Presents Cantata

Mrs. J. B. Goldman presented a Christmas Cantata Sunday evening at the Main Street Methodist Church.

Titled "The Wondrous Story," this musical tale unfolded the birth of our Saviour, inspiring the congregation with the wonders of the nativity, in all its lyrical beauty.

A huge star formed of electric bulbs was suspended in the Sanctuary of the Church. Greenery and candlelight created a scene of infinite calm and peace, a fit setting for the exquisite music of the evening.

Mrs. Goldman played the organ accompanying the voices, and directed the Cantata. Soloists were Vernon Parker, tenor; William W. James Jr., bass; Mrs. Teddo Thomas, soprano; and Mrs. Richard Thurman, soprano. A duet was sung by Mrs. A. M. Ellison, alto, and Miss Paula Kimbrell, soprano.

Members of the choir were Bobby and Billy Clapp, John Ginn, J. T. Bourgeois, Paul Miller, Warren Traub Jr., Mrs. Warren Traub Sr., Miss Noel Jeffcoat and Miss Clea Kay Miller. Paul Miller and Warren Traub Jr. added a new note as a duet of boy sopranos.

A fire causing about $500 worth of damage broke out in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Luke, 335 St. John St., about 11 a.m. Sunday.

A hot water heater, enclosed in a closet in the bathroom of the home, broke into flames. Apparently it did not explode.

Mrs. Luke was at home alone with the children when she discovered the fire. Her husband was doing some work of wiring on a home which members of the community are trying to ready for Mrs. Ed Poolson and her children in Edwardsville for Christmas.

Mrs. Luke immediately called the fire department and she said that within five minutes of her call the firemen with equipment were at her home and rapidly extinguished the flames. It was just at the time of the arrival of the fire department that Mr. Luke returned home. Crowds of neighbors had assembled and were helping with the work of getting the house cleared for the firemen to get through with fire fighting equipment.

All damage was done in the bathroom of the house, as the fire was put out before it had an opportunity to spread to further areas.

COUNTY KIDS REMINDED OF LEGION XMAS PARTY

All children of Hancock County were reminded this week by Commander Sidney Bourgeois of the American Legion free Christmas party at 1 p.m. Saturday afternoon.

The party will start with a free movie at the Star Theatre, compliments of the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Scafield.

Santa Claus will be at the party, according to committee chairmen Leroy Luke and Lucien Kidd. Toys, candy and fruit will be distributed to all children who attend.

Supreme Court Affirms Lower Court Decision in Lott-Necaise Vote Count

The Supreme Court of Mississippi recently affirmed the decision of the lower courts in the case of Jack Lott and Lander Necaise.

Necaise had taken Lott into court on a recount of boxes in the second primary election held in August when both men were candidates for the office of Supervisor of Beat Four in Hancock County.

Lott received about 52 more votes than Necaise when the ballots were cast. Necaise contended irregularities in the voting and took the case into court. The lower courts ruled the voting regular and decided in favor of the successful candidate, Lott.

Necaise then appealed to the Supreme Court of the state. Lott has been serving as Supervisor of Beat Four for the last four years. He and Necaise had been opposing candidates for this office during the 1951 elections, when Lott was voted into his position as a member of the County Board.

Best In State, Oil Men Assert

Hancock County's first oil well is in an area where Sun Oil Co. has drilled five dry holes in the last four years with one of the ventures logging uncommercial in what is thought to be the beginning of an era of prosperity for the people of this county. Oilmen said yesterday the well probably will be the "best producer in the entire state."

The well was brought in at 10,800 feet. It is producing 2 1/2 million cubic feet of gas a day. Producing at the rate of 240 to 250 barrels of 44 gravity oil a day under 1750 pounds tubing pressure when first brought in, the flow yesterday had stepped up to 400 to 450 barrels.

The wildcat, the Cuevas Estato No. 1, sec.30-9s-15w, was brought in by Marshall R. Young of Fort Worth, Texas. It is located near Pearlington.

The potential new pool-opener

It is understood that Sun Oil Co. and Associates are planning to drill additional wells in the area. The company is planning to drill a well in the area of the Cuevas Estato No. 1, sec.30-9s-15w, located on the Pearl River Sound in 1952 and tried another venture last year on the east-ocean boundary of the Sound near Horn Island.

The Marshall Young wildcat is on a farm out acreage deal from Sun and is reported to be approximately 350 feet higher on structure than the nearest dry hole.

Interest in the state's offshore lands has been revived by the new find. So far, offshore drilling has been confined to two wildcat tries, both failures. Gulf Refining Co. and Mobil Oil Co. drilled off Hancock County in the Mississippi Sound in 1952 and tried another venture last year on the east-ocean boundary of the Sound near Horn Island.

The large ownerships and the tightly leased acreage left almost nothing open which could be purchased.

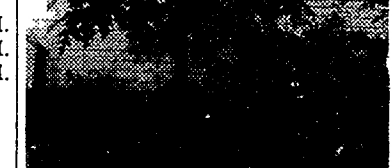

Discovery well will undoubtedly promote the drilling of a number of additional wells throughout the area, and most of the acreage not now under lease on the Gulf Coast will be developed.

Humble Oil and Refining Co. is testing its Stevens No. 1, sec. 2, 1s-14w, located on the Pearl River Sound side of the Pistol Ridge gas condensate field.

First Papaya On Coast Is Grown Here

First known fruit-bearing papaya on this section of the Gulf Coast was raised this year in Bay St. Louis by Mrs. Alice McGovern at her home, 408 South Beach.

After having spent a goodly portion of her life trotting around the globe and living in various section of the United States, the McGoverns moved to Bay St. Louis about three years ago.

It was only this year that Mrs. McGovern decided to experiment raising papaya, a fruit which had intrigued her when she lived in tropical climates.

The papaya must be planted with both male and female plants to produce fruit. In the tropics these trees reach heights of 40 feet or more when fully matured. The fruit has many commercial values, as food as well as medicinal.

Lately the juice has been used

Dimes Drive to Open Here on January 3

This community will join with 10,000 others to launch the 1956 March of Dimes on Tuesday, January 3. The campaign, continuing through January 31, is based on the theme "Polio Isn't Licked Yet."

Fund raising efforts will be conducted here by the local chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Chapter officials have appealed for volunteer workers to aid in the drive.

Millions of dollars in March of Dimes funds are needed, these officials say, "to aid thousands of polio patients for whom the Salk vaccine comes too late."

Some 68,000 patients all over the country are now on the rolls of the National Foundation, and many more will be stricken before the Salk vaccine is administered to all.

Funds also are needed to continue the National Foundation's work in scientific research. That program has already produced the Salk vaccine, which is 90-90 per cent effective against three types of virus known to cause polio. Additional research may turn up still better medical weapons.

March of Dimes research goes beyond preventive techniques and devotes a good deal of time and money to the search for new methods of care and treatment; the polio fund also provides training for doctors, nurses and other specialists in rehabilitation.

This latter phase of the program aids not only polio patients but all those who suffer from crippling handicaps.

The minimum need for the 1956 March of Dimes has been set at $47,600,000.

More than 55 cents of each dollar of these funds will go directly into financing of the medical and other care so essential to those who have been stricken by polio. March of Dimes leaders said.

This includes cost of maintaining the 14 respirators which the National Foundation operates throughout the country for research and demonstration of new techniques in the care of persons whose breathing is impaired by polio.

"By steadily improving the methods of coping medically with polio, scientists whose work is financed by the March of Dimes have been instrumental not only in cutting down the death rate by more than half since the national Foundation was established in 1938, but also in greatly extending the degree of recovery from crippling disease."

PUT CHRIST BACK INTO CHRISTMAS

The reason for the celebration of Christmas is because of the birth of Christ.
"I know that," you will reply. But do you remember it? Do you remember it in the proper way?
It seems that the Modern Christmas is associated more closely with shopping, purchasing, and contemplating what might be found under the tree on the morning of December 25, rather than with a vital religious aspect and expectancy. The advent of Christ is all too vague in this present day. It is appalling that some little children are not even aware of or are made conscious of the true meaning of Christmas.
It seems that if each one of us determined to celebrate this Christmas with a certain amount of sincere prayer and meditation we could all do our share towards aiding this degenerating world.
The old custom of street carolers is sadly missed. How heartwarming it once was to have a group stop by a lighted window and sing, "O Little Town of Bethlehem" or "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear." One felt the touch of Christ in Christmas and was a better man for it!

COLLISION OCCURS ON NICHOLSON AVE.

An automobile collision last week on Nicholson Ave. between the Kuhn Road and US 90 resulted in considerable damage to a 1965 Chrysler automobile owned and operated by Ray Stieffel Sr. of Waveland and a 1961 Dodge sedan owned and driven by a Biloxi woman, with another Biloxi woman as passenger.
Mr. and Mrs. Stieffel with their young son, Stephen, were returning to their Waveland home following a visit with friends when the accident occurred. Mrs. Stieffel and her young son were sitting on the back seat of the car. She grabbed the boy, and protected him from injury, but suffered a broken arm herself. Stieffel was pushed into the steering wheel of the car and was treated at his home for injuries, which proved not too serious. Neither woman in the Dodge was hurt.
TO ENTERTAIN YULE GUESTS
Yule guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Whitfield of Bay St. Louis will be Mrs. Whitfield's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Murky of New Orleans, La. and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Collins of Baton Rouge, La.
Also visiting for the New Year season will be two schoolmates of Billy Whitfield, Tom Britton of Ireland, Fla. and Shufford Johnson of Lookout Mountain, Tenn.

SANTA CLAUS VISITS YC

Santa Claus made an appearance Sunday afternoon in Bay St. Louis at the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club where he spent a very fine afternoon distributing gifts and playing games with about 40 children at a Christmas party.
The club house was festive and gay with a huge tree, glittering with ornaments placed on one side of the massive fireplace which glowed with burning yule logs.
The children awaited the arrival of Old Santa by playing games and singing Christmas carols. Suddenly there was the noise of jingling bells and Kris Kringle arrived. The tooting of horns and the merry voices of the little guests made this gay old gentleman especially welcome. With pack on back he greeted each little boy and girl by name and made them happy with a distribution of toys to each one. When the last of the small fry had received a gift Santa and the children were invited to have some Christmas goodies to refresh themselves with. Mrs. Richard Sattler was chairman of the event and was assisted in serving by Mrs. B. B. Farrelly, Mrs. Henry Chapman, Mrs. Charles Lozano, Mrs. Lester Smith and Mrs. Kenneth Pepperdene.
Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks says: "The prospect is that retail stores will have the best Christmas sales in history." The gift that keeps growing in value is a Series E United States Savings Bond.

PAPAYA GROWN HERE

for tenderizing meat. Either in dry form as a powder or in the liquid form it can be poured over the toughest meats and it makes them tender enough to be fork cut.
Mrs. McGovern said that she has taken tough meat and wrapped it in the leaves of the papaya plant, which, incidentally, are quite large, and by this process has tenderized meat.
The trees were planted here this year in April. The male grew to a height of about 15 feet and the female to about 8 feet. Mrs. McGovern restricted her experiment of the raising of this fruit tree to the planting of only two.
The male tree produced about 35 large, luscious fruit and the female slightly less. When the extremely cold weather hit the coast last week, Mrs. McGovern gathered the fruit and cut the trees back to save them from freezing. They will not have to be replanted next year, but will come back as does the banana plant.
The fruit is a large, pulpy melen type. Pale green in coloring, it can be eaten as a fruit or cooked into pies or other pastries. Each fruit contains about 700 seeds.
Many uses are made of this fruit in the distilling of medicine. It is a hardy plant once it becomes acclimated, needing little attention and only once a year fertilization.
Another plant that this intrepid gardener is experimenting with in her yard is the Texas umbrella plant. It is a bushy type plant used strictly for ornament and shade.
Next year she plans to try her green thumb with the Guava plant.

EPISCOPAL DAY SCHOOL HAS FOOTBALL GAME

Christ Episcopal Day School was the scene Saturday of a thrilling football game between team "A" and team "B", coached by Jack Dresher and the Rev. Charles R. Johnson. J. W. Watts was timekeeper and Don McCulloch was the game official.
The game was well attended. The teams consisted of the following boys:
Team "A": Sammy Allison, Donnie McCulloch, Carl Bailey, Tommy Phelps, Michael O'Neal, Paul Larsen, Joey Pucheu, Dick Watts, Joe Edwards and Bill Sattler.
Team "B": Norvin Penrose, Bruce Phelps, Chuck Wagner, Don Ramelli, Walter Chamberlain, Bill Bassett, Milby Boys, Alfred Watts and John Kramer Jr.
This was the first game played before the public since Dresher began coaching the boys, and the game revealed the splendid job he is doing with them.

MEMBERS OF THE BAY ST. LOUIS LITTLE THEATRE WILL MEET

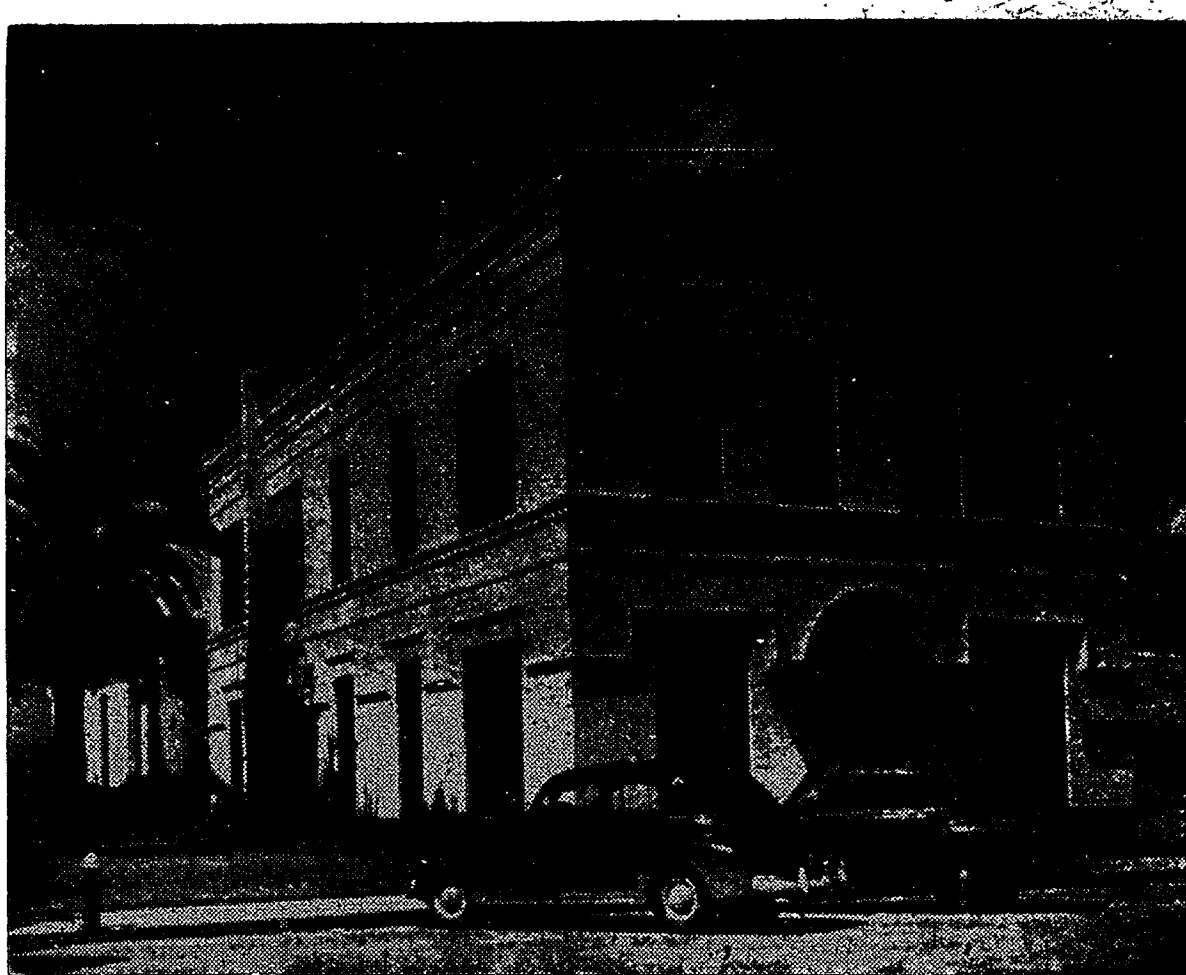

Members of the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre will meet officers to serve for 1980 at the annual business meeting scheduled for 8 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 28, at the Playhouse on Boardman Ave.
In addition to the election of officers, a vote will be given for awarding the best play of the 1979 season. Four plays will be given consideration for this award. They are "Charley's Aunt," "Seven Keys to Baldpate," "Private Lives" and "The Velvet Glove."
A deviation from the usual procedure of awards was voted on by the membership this year. The Oscars presented to individual actors in the past will be discontinued and only one award will be made for the best liked play of the year. This award will be made by popular vote of members.

Peace And Prosperity

It is the custom in the Season of Seasons to remember our friends and count our blessings.

It is the time of year when home and loved ones are foremost in our thoughts and when the hearts of little children leap with expectations as they live in a land of make-believe and dream of Santa Claus.

We have so much for which to be thankful here on the Mississippi Coast. It has been a year of peace and prosperity and the New Year comes over the horizon full of promise. Surely this should be a holiday of happy hearthstones and good fellowship.

As we list our assets we are grateful for the good will of those who make the business of banking pleasant and profitable. There is a lot of intangible wealth that enriches lives that cannot be put in any financial statement

We are thankful for your thoughtfulness, your patience and your countless courtesies. Your bank's officers, directors and employees are deeply indebted for the confidence you have placed in them and the cooperation you have given that has contributed so much to the building of your bank.

May we gather mutual strength in an association that has meant much to the financial stability and development of this progressive community, and may we work together for the advancement of this thriving Gulf Coast country.

So to you and yours, all of us at the Hancock Bank extend our warmest greetings and best wishes for an abundance of all the good things of life. May the New Year bring you peace and prosperity, and through all the years to come, may you and yours have a full measure of Wealth, Health and Happiness.

Bay High School started its Christmas holidays on Wednesday, December 21, and school resumes on the morning of Tuesday, Jan. 3, 1956.

A candle-light procession to the accompanying music of "Oh, Come, All Ye Faithful" sung by the Bay High Girls Chorus, preceded the presentation Monday evening of "Ghosts in the Skies," a Christmas cantata by Holton.

Among the traditional Christmas melodies to be heard in special arrangement by Holton were "Oh, Christmas were used by Mrs. Don McCulloch Sr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton to decorate the lovely new McCulloch home at N. Beach Friday for the late afternoon tea at which the two ladies entertained.

The hostesses, crowned in afternoon formals and adorned with Christmas corsages, received their many guests. Pouring coffee and tea from the beautifully appointed table, beaming with silver service and lighted tapers in silver candelabra were a number of prominent Bay St. Louis women who alternated during the four hours of the party. They were Mrs. Leo Seal Sr., Mrs. J. A. Evans Sr., Mrs. J. R. Shadoin, Mrs. P. E. Porter Sr., Mrs. Harold B. Weston, Mrs. Don Russell, Mrs. C. C. McDonald Sr. and Mrs. A. O. Hoefeld.

Younger matrons of the community served as Tea Girls and included Mrs. Lewis Wagner, Mrs. P. E. Porter Jr., Mrs. William Pittman, Mrs. Patrick Murphy, Mrs. Shirley Sewell, Mrs. Rene deMont-luzin Jr., Mrs. Walter Rausch, Mrs. Sam Whitfield, Mrs. David McDonald, Mrs. J. R. Drescher and Mrs. Russell Chapman.

NAMED AIRMEN OF MONTH IN KOREA

A Bay St. Louis man was named Airman of the month in Korea. This honor went to Myles Dale Favre, who was promoted from Corporal to Sergeant, and at the same time received the award. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Favre Sr. and has been in service for several years.

Little Town of Bethlehem

"While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks by Night" and "As With Gladness Men of Old."

Soloists were Carolyn Johnson, soprano, Janice Bankston, mezzo-soprano, Thelma LaFontaine and Sylvia Tamplin, altos, and Marcel LaNesa, the director, violin.

The two children who formed the lovely tableau of the manger scene were sixth graders Jo Ann McCulloch as Mary and Wade Ladner as Joseph.

Monday night was a particularly proud night for the chorus because they were appearing for the first time in their new white broadcloth choral robes which the chorus had designated as their goal for the year.

Walter Gay will be crossing the bridge a lot in the future. Marie Mallant will be entertaining him.

Louie Palmer won the prize for being the funniest looking bum at the BUMS' BALL. Bob Hubbard was the cause of quite a few laughs in his crazy getup. The ball was a huge success and everybody had a great time.

Christmas always seems to bring the nicest things. A beautiful watch from Andy Lott to Marsha Blaise. HIS class ring for Pat Bourgeois. and one of the nicest presents is having those handsome and beautiful local guys and dolls home from college. LSU brings us Doug Talbot, Bob by Ladner, Elodie and Gayle Brechtel, and maybe the R. D. will pay someone a visit this Christmas. Jeannette Monti, Gaydell Cue, Diane Seuzeneau, Moe Mitchell, Kinta Kergosien and Dot Larroux are anxiously awaiting Santa.

Delta Sigma Chi's Formal and Formal Initiation will be held next Tuesday at the Yacht Club.

Donnie Landers will be visiting in town for the holidays, which makes his one and only, Carol Sue, very happy.

Lotsa people had lotsa fun at the Christmas Dance at Kiln Youth Center. The music by Claudettes band was wunnerful.

Leo is a happy guy these days cuz he and Janelle Egloff have patched things up again and are going to have a wonderful Xmas.

Bobby Katt and all of the Eagle staff hope that Mary and her loving Son will bless you each and every one.
